No wonder Conte held his head in his hands.

"We have done it I am so unbelievably proud." In what could be Conte's final home match, he made six changes in the side that beat Champions League finalists Liverpool 1-0 on Sunday, with Olivier Giroud and Eden Hazard surprisingly left on the bench. Antonio Conte's side fell behind to Laurent Depoitre's second-half strike and although Marcos Alonso begged a fortuitous equaliser, the Blues couldn't find a priceless winner. Fourth placed Liverpool are two points ahead of Chelsea and, given their vastly superior goal difference, they will condemn the Blues to the Europa League next season if they avoid defeat against Brighton at Amfield on Sunday.

When Aaron Mosey played a pass over the top of the Chelsea defence, Blues goalkeeper Willy Caballero came rushing to the edge of the area in a bid to clear. Arpilicorta drilled over a low cross that prompted a panicked clearance from Mathias Zanka and the ball hit Alonso in the face before rebounding into the Huddersfield net. Fifth placed Chelsea's attempt to salvage a troubled season by finishing in the top four is now out of their hands heading into the final game of the season at Newcastle on Sunday. Conte responded by sending on Giroud and Hazard and Chelsea grabbed a bizarre equaliser in the 62nd minute.
